

U.S. Senator James E. Risch

Interview

The interview process is a brief but very important part of each application. The value of having interaction early in the process can help an applicant strengthen his or her decision to pursue a nomination and can help to answer questions related to the process.

It is not always possible to arrange a face-to-face meeting. Interviews can be held at any of Senator Risch's six state offices or his staff has the ability to set up a video conference to perform the interview.

It is best to schedule your interview as early as possible. Contact Frances Hasenoehrl at 208-743-0792 to set up this appointment. If travel and schedules do not permit for face-to-face or video conferencing, then a tele-conference interview will suffice.
